DOINGS OF THE WAR CAMP COM-

DOINGS OF THE WAR CAMP COM-MUNITY SERVES.

Since the Army and Navy are being rapidly demobilized. Wer Camp Community Service is extending its activities to the discharged soldiers. As approximately two thousand Colored soldiers have entered the army from Dalias County, it has been decided by the national headquarters of War Camp Community Service to establish a community House in this city, primarily for the benefit of Colored soldiers and discharged sailors, and incidently for the generative of the Colored prople of Dalias. The program for this work was cutlined a few weeks ago by John E. Mitchell, Executive Secretary of War Camp Service, to a representative committee of Colored citizens of which J. P. Starks was chairman and W. P. Vaughn, secretary. This committee, through a nominating committee an alvisory hoard consisting of the following machers:

Miles Norcum, Chas, T. Brackins, Mrs. Estells Cofield, W. E. Ewing, V. & S. Bocker, J. P. Starks, Mrs. B. E. Reynolds, Mrs. F. B. Gibson,

E. J. Cooper, J. M. Tolbert, R. T. Hamilton, A. L. Runyan, Mrs. J. C. Frazier, G. L. Boswell, Mrs. D. V.
